

1,000 MEN TO GUARD MAILS

Mail Bandits May Suffer Same Fate As Did the Germans.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—A special force of 1,000 men who fought the Germans in France will be organized as a permanent arm of the postal service to fight mail bandits, Postmaster-General Hays stated today.

As soon as the force can be recruited it will replace the 1,000 marines who today took their places in mail trains, trucks and postoffices as the first step in Hays' "open warfare" against mail robbers.

Marguerite turns from Laurier

For all that she knew her husband was deeply devoted, for all his distinction in Paris, Marguerite had never loved him. But she had kept resolutely her share of the bargain in matrimony her parents had arranged—until one afternoon she visited the home of Marcelo Desnoyers, and then—but that is part of the story of
